

6516208086.txt

I do not see the purpose in regulating the content available on satellite radio, other than to remove any incentive for local broadcasters to improve their service. The information provided on XM's traffic and weather stations does not exist in such a clear and concise format on any AM or FM station in my area. I choose to support local broadcasters while also utilizing my XM subscription, and I believe the competition will lead all parties involved to innovate and improve their product.